

K-LOVE radio, a station currently using FM translators, is uplifting and encouraging to the Tucson community, among many others. If Tucson were to lose KLOVE, many people would lose their connection with the Christian community. People's lives are changed for the better because of the message KLOVE spreads. KLOVE provides a service to Tucson that no other station does, spreading a message of love, encouragement, and faith to all.